

LABOR & UNITED WAY

TOGETHER HELPING FAMILIES. TOGETHER BUILDING COMMUNITY.

- The United Way Labor Department Direct Assist Program continues to help families with utilities and housing assistance along with providing community referrals thanks to the AFL-CIO and United Way Partnership.
- Union leaders and community services committees take part in Union Community Activist Network (UCAN) trainings to learn about valuable community resources to help their members.
- 26 Union leaders provide direction to United Way by serving on the Board of Directors and Regional Auxiliary Boards.
- United Way partners with the Building Union Diversity (BUD) program to prepare, recruit and retain more women and minorities for union construction apprenticeship programs.
- United Way supports community collaboration efforts to address the opioid epidemic, from treatment for pregnant moms to worksite education.
- Five Union members work full-time as United Way Labor Liaisons to help union families and strengthen Labor and community ties.
- United Way serves Metropolitan St. Louis in 16 counties in Missouri and Illinois and helps more than one million people each year.
- 2-1-1 is a free, easy, confidential way for people to call for health and human services assistance from professionals 24 hours a day. Since the start of the COVID-19 crisis, United Way 2-1-1 has received 372,712 requests for help!

See reverse for listing of 164 partner agencies receiving United Way funding. For more information, please visit HelpingPeople.org.
